Today we set up the outdoor Christmas decorations.

Sunday December 11 2011

This is how the lights look at night.

Monday December 12 2011

Maureen goes two or three times a week to her Paper Crafters group. Some are working on cards or ornaments and others are Scrapbooking. Maureen is working on a wedding album.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY Martin!

Wednesday December 14, 2011

Wednesday mornings are very busy for Mike as he often teaches computer lessons.

While Mike was teaching Maureen went for her one month post-op appointment with the Eye Doctor. The news was very good. The macular hole has healed. The eyesight is still quite poor as gas still fills about half of the eye, but things are improving every day. Thank you Susan for picking up Maureen after the appointment.

Monday December 19, 2011

Tonight was the Paper Crafters Pot Luck. As many of the members are away we had Hors d' Oeuvres and desserts instead of a meal. The variety of food was great and everyone had a good time.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY MATTHEW!

Percy spent the day at the vet where they removed a broken tooth, cleaned and polished his teeth, clipped his nails and gave him a bath. Sure wish I could get pampering like that at the dentist!

Just before we picked up Percy, we attended the Palm Creek Lions club meeting. The District Governor, Chip Kline addressed the members. Maureen had fun as the tail twister.

Friday December 23, 2011

We took our neighbours Arleen and Larry to the Airport. They flew back to Canada to spend Christmas with their family. We are dog sitting one of their puppies for them while they are away.

We drove to Apache Junction and had breakfast with Maureen' s brother Roy and his wife Gaylene. Did a little shopping and then headed back to Casa Grande.

CHRISTMAS EVE

Little Bella is adjusting well to living with us. She likes to sit on the back to the sofa and keep an eye on her trailer.

In the evening we went to Church with Susan and Everett and then had some really good Chinese food at Big Wa.

On the way back we checked out some of the park lights.

Some streets were lined with luminaries

MERRY CHRISTMAS EVERYONE!

We had a quiet morning at home, drank Mimosas and opened a few presents.

Then we joined 2 dozen neighbours at the pavilion for a yummy meal at 1 pm followed by a gift exchange. Some of the guests were very attached to their presents and tried to hide them so no one would steal them.

Monday December 26, 2011

While Mike golfed and Maureen undecorated the rig the dogs enjoyed the sunshine

At 1 pm we went back to the pavilion where yesterday's leftovers became today's lunch. Why is it that they always taste even better the second day?
