We have been in the Soo for one week now. Loving the KOA and all it has to offer

The Kamp Store has lots of things to buy for everyone, including the dog.

Percy sure loves Kamp K9. It is a small version of the big agility park where he has been practising his agility skills and driving the collies crazy with his antics.

This is one of the fancy Kamp Sites on the west side. It includes a swing, dinette set, fire pit and patio stones.

I call this Glamping! (Glamorous Camping)

One of the eight Kamping Cabins.

Mike has been busy reinforcing the picnic tables with screws.

The Pavilion in one of the tent areas

Every day Percy takes us to Kamp K9 and lets us play with his ball

Percy runs so fast that the camera can't catch him

Maureen spent a few hours working on the big garden in front of the office. It did not look too bad, but after removing 2 wheel barrows full of material and adding more red mulch it looks great.

Time to tackle another garden

The garden before and

after!!!!!!!

Heard some banging last evening and did not know what it was.

Looks like a bear wanted to see what was in the locked garbage bin.

Mike saw a baby bear in the park last week so Mama Bear is probably not far away.

Yesterday Percy found a chipmunk sitting on top of our trailer tire.

There was quite a ruckus when Percy tried to catch the little guy.

He spends a lot of time looking out the window hoping that the critter will reappear.

Happy 66th Birthday Mike. Maureen took Mike out to Quattro Chophouse for his birthday. We did not have reservations. When we arrived the restaurant was almost empty, so it was quite a surprise to learn that we would have to wait in the bar for 20 minutes. By the time we were seated the place was almost full.

Mike had a Quattro steak: a Filet covered in Gorgonzola Sauce and crispy onions and a side of Seafood Fettuccini.

Maureen enjoyed a Seafood Risotto. Both dishes were fabulous.

After dinner we had cake and coffee at Sharon and Lindsey's place and then played some Mexican Trains.
