LIONS FOUNDATION OF CANADA
DOGGUIDES

We took Indee to the Dog Guide Vet in Oakville to have his booster shots. The little guy was very good and did not seem to mind the shots at all.

Saturday September 18, 2010

Matt and Charlie came for a visit. Percy and Indee had a great time playing with Charlie. All the guys played golf and then we had a BBQ.

Sunday September 19, 2010

Percy and Indee enjoying the sunshine on the patio. Indee sure has grown a lot in the one month we have had him.

Sunday September 26, 2010

Indee attended the Stratford Peter Pan Picnic where the Stratford Lions were selling Bacon on a Bun and other great things to raise funds for projects.

Indee entertained both the Lions and the guests.

Hot Chocolate or Coffee anyone?

Nasty pirates were fighting in the street

Would you like some cheese on that?

Trudy selling tickets on the Ipad and Apple Mac for the Razzmajazz.

Indee watching for Peter Pan and Wendy.

Wednesday September 29, 2010

Percy and Indee relaxing in the rig. They have become very good friends but sometimes Indee gets a bit rambunctious and Percy lets him know who is boss.

Saturday October 2, 2010

Maureen and Indee drove to Waterloo to attend a baby shower for Jenn. There were lots of little kids there as well as their mothers so Indee had a blast. The mother-to-be got lots of neat stuff for the little one who will be arriving soon.

When Maureen got back to the campsite our friends Joanne and John had their rig set up across the lane from us and we all enjoyed a Roast Beef supper that Mike had prepared.

Sunday October 3, 2010

Maureen and Jo went into St. Marys for some groceries. Unfortunately the stores downtown were not open, so we didn't get to visit the craft store.

For supper Jo and John made a wonderful dinner for us.

Monday October 4, 2010

The days are getting shorter and it is time to start packing up for these big birds and their four footed friends to fly south for the winter.

The sunsets are still pretty at Science Hill but it is getting a bit nippy outside.

Friday October 8, 2010

After filling the basement with all the stuff we need for the winter, we headed west down the 401 and arrived at the Wildwood RV Resort about 2 pm. After a quick lunch, it was off to the church in Windsor for the wedding rehearsal. The Padre kept things on track, but made a few jokes to ease the nervousness.

At 7 pm we all met at the Smoke and Spice Restaurant where we enjoyed fabulous ribs, pulled pork sandwiches and macaroni. It was a great opportunity to get to know Matt and Kimmy's friends and relatives.

If I've told you once.....

Who??????????
Me????????????

Some people ate so much that they got a little silly

Indee just stretched out under the table and did what all good Dog Guides do.

Saturday October 9, 2010

In the morning the ladies went to have their nails done at Central Mall. Trish made Mimosas while we all enjoyed being pampered.

In the afternoon the guys went for a paint ball competition.

Mike learned how NOT to duck and ended up with a cut on the top of his head.

Sunday October 10, 2010

The wedding day has finally arrived and it is a beauty with the sun shining and warm breezes blowing.

The girls spent the morning at the beauty parlour where the hairdressers worked their magic.

Attaching the veil

Do you think it will show???

YES...YES..Yes!

Then it was off to Matt's house to check out how the guys looked. Matt is in the Scottish Regiment and plays in the Pipe and Drum corps, so all the guys in the wedding party was outfitted with kilts. They sure looked handsome.

Matt's best man is David, an old friend from Milverton, and his brother Martin was a groomsman. Charlie and CJ were the ring bearers.

Waiting for the bride to arrive.

Hey Charlie ☐ this is more like it!

Maureen enjoying the sunshine and flowers

After the official picture taking we went to the Legion. The table decorations were very attractive.

There was even a Candy Bar where guests could fill their goody bags with whatever candies they wanted.

Mike did a wonderful job as the Master of Ceremonies but the microphone acted up each time that he used it. Something to do with his electric personality!

After a fantastic smoked turkey dinner and cutting the cake the dancing began.

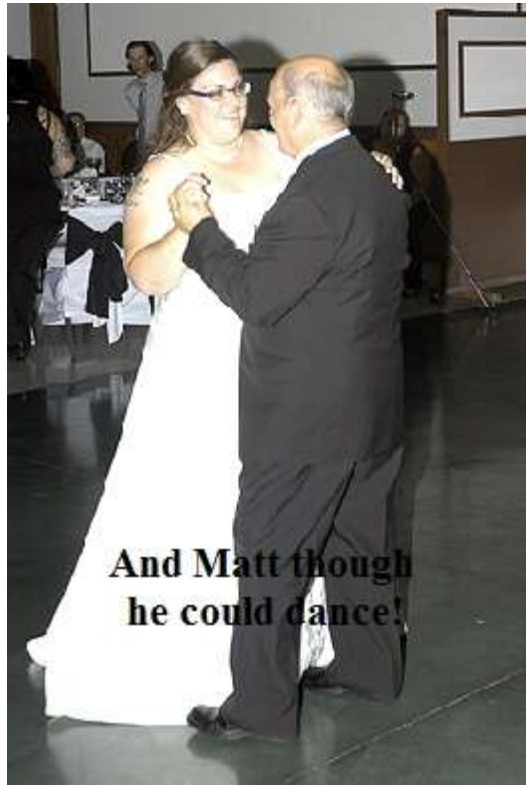

I'd like a small piece

We're Married!
Really!

Well
Maybe he can!

And Matt thought he could dance!

And lots of dancing!

Of course there was the Limbo

And the Macarena

Oh!!
That felt much better!

Matt removed the garter rather quickly

I promise not to tickle too much

And then his brother caught it!

Jenny caught the bouquet and the DJ made him place it on Martin's leg!

All in all it was a wonderful wedding and a great way to start our trip south.

Tuesday October 12, 2010

At 1030 am we had everything packed up and headed across the Ambassador Bridge to Detroit. The US border agent was quite pleasant, but he did take some sweet peppers from the fridge. You never know what they want for their pound of flesh.

Just after Ann Arbor Michigan we pulled off the interstate to get the rig cleaned at a Blue Beacon Truck wash. They did an excellent job and it only cost $56 US. That included washing the truck and a Rainex Rinse.

Made one more stop to stock up on groceries. Sure wish we could buy milk in Ontario for $1.79 gallon!

We arrived in LaGrange Indiana later that afternoon and parked in the lot beside Indiana Interstate. We checked in with Paul and Kay to confirm our appointment with them for the next day and then settled down for a relaxing evening.

Wednesday October 13, 2010

At 8 am Maureen took Indee off to the LaGrange Vet to have his final booster shots. The Vet was quite impressed with the important mission that Indee is on. He gave Indee a clean bill of health as well as lots of praise and a big treat.

Back at Indiana Interstate Paul Cross and his crew were busy doing some maintenance on our rig. We took off for a few hours to visit the DRV factory, look around Shipshewana and have some lunch. Everything was done when we got back and it was off to Goshen where we had an appointment with Ron for Thursday morning.

Thursday October 14, 2010

We were definitely up before the chickens this morning. At 7 am Ron welcomed us into the Trailaire shop where he installed the latest version of Level Ups. These ones will automatically level front to back and side to side and even remember how high the hitch was before we levelled, so we can re-hitch even more easily than before.

It only took 3 hours at Trailaire and then we then moved to the Elkhart County Fairgrounds to make sure that everything was working OK. In no time flat (pardon the pun) we were level and ready for lunch.
